

SIR wins national award

The StarPhoenix

Published: Wednesday, January 19, 2011

Saskatchewan International Raceway has been named the 2010 National Hot Rod

Association's Northwest Division Summit Racing Series track of the year.

The award is presented annually to a track in the NHRA's Northwest Division that has developed a successful Summit Racing Series, and which fosters local drivers who compete successfully within their geographic division.

SIR is located 13 kilometres south of Saskatoon on Highway 11.

© The StarPhoenix (Saskatoon) 2011